VERY REV. WILLIAM L. KELEHER, S.J.

Again we bring to you greetings of all at the Heights, this time as we begin our 86th year in Boston. Elsewhere in this issue of the Alumni News you will read of the changes and additions on our faculty. [We begin the year with more than 100 priests and, I am informed, this represents the largest Jesuit teaching faculty in the world. The lay faculty, too, has grown proportionately, and so we are prepared to welcome to the Heights a student body that will number about 5000. At a later date we shall have the exact numbers and include the registrations of our Intown Schools.

Probably the most important addition to the faculty from the viewpoint of the Alumni Association, is the establishment of an office of Public Relations with Dave Lucey, class of '40, as director. As an executive assistant to me, Mr. Lucey has worked out a rather elaborate program which will be reported as it unfolds. I am very confident that this step is one that will meet with the approval of all.

This is the first occasion on which I greet you under the new, or rather a return to the old plan of operation. By your vote of last June, the Alumni Association decided to operate independently of the College. Naturally, I am much interested in the new arrangement. I am deeply grateful for the cooperation and support you have given me in the past three years, and I sincerely hope that the same cooperation and support will be given your Alumni officers. It is their hope and mine that each year the Association will be in a position to make a substantial contribution to the College and thus give us confidence to go ahead with our hopes for further expansion. A successful Alumni activity is the surest guarantee that we can make Boston College what it should be.

Our College of Business Administration Building is completed and I hope that those of you who helped make it possible will come out to see what we have done. As you know, our campaign was not the success we had hoped it would be. Because of this, I shall not begin at once with another building. We are drawing plans for a building to match the Science Building and I would like to break ground in the Spring. However, unless I know that I am to have the full support of our Alumni Association, I cannot go ahead with this very necessary addition.

The Maintenance Building, too, has been completed and I feel that when you have had an opportunity to inspect it you will agree that a long-felt need has been fulfilled.

Finally, the last most important change at the Heights is the conversion of part of Cardinal O'Connell Hall to a dormitory unit. This means we shall have approximately 200 boarders on our campus. Even this figure does not begin to take care of those who would prefer to be with us. Thus, you see that with all the expansion, we have only begun. Hence, I cannot urge you too strongly to support your Alumni officers in their hopes to build up an annual fund which will mean so much to us at the Heights.

My thanks to all of you for what you have done for us, and God's best blessings on you always.

ALUMNI CENTRE OPENED IN BOSTON

In May the Alumni Association moved its offices to 37 Province Street (between School and Bromfield Streets), Boston, where it has leased two floors. The second floor has been made into a club. During the summer this large room was furnished and decorated and is now ready for the use of the Alumni.

Alumni working in or visiting the city are invited to inspect the new quarters. Through the years many Alumni have expressed the wish to have an Alumni club in Boston. The club at 37 Province Street has been opened in response to this wish.

A house committee has been formed to plan evening activities for the coming season.

ALUMNI OFFICERS

In the annual election held last June William M. Cashin, '18, Hancock Village, Chestnut Hill, was elected president of the Alumni Association succeeding J. Lester Hourigan, '24, Winthrop.

Mr. Cashin is a sales engineer, the New England representative of the Brunner Manufacturing Company, Utica, New York.

Previously he had served as treasurer and first vice-president of the Association. During the war he was a commander in the Naval Reserve.

Mr. Cashin is married and has one child who graduated from Trinity College last June.

The following were also elected: First vice-president, John B. Atkinson, '16, Cambridge, City Manager, City of Cambridge; second vice-president, Walter J. Waldron, '27, President, Simco Trading Company, Inc., Mattapan; treasurer, Henry M. Leen, '29, Dorchester, lawyer, Boston; secretary, Leo C. Donahue, '29, Somerville, Assistant Superintendent of Schools, Somerville.

Elected to the Board of Directors were: John H. Flynn, '17, Newton, New England representative, Congoleum-Nairn, Inc.; Richard McShane Kelly, '37, Belmont, Assistant Public Relations Director, Lever Brothers Company, Cambridge.

Messrs. Flynn and Kelly will serve with the following previously elected directors: Alfred J. Bedard, '23, New York; Rt. Rev. Charles A. Finn, '99, West Roxbury; John W. Kapples, '14, Quincy; Daniel A. Lynch, '25, Lexington.

Elected to the Graduate Board of Athletics were Rev. Albert J. Powers, '36, St. Theresa's Parish, Watertown, and William H. Sullivan, Jr., '37, Watertown, Publicity Director, Boston Braves. Completing the Board for the coming year are: Robert P. Curran, '35, Scituate; Robert E. Foy, Jr., '21, Quincy; Edward M. Gallagher, Jr., '32, Boston; Thomas F. Scanlan, '20, Arlington.

ALUMNI DAY

Alumni Day on June 7 was observed by 600 Alumni returning to the Heights despite the rain, which ruined all outdoor exercises during Commencement Week. Although the Holy Cross ball game could not be played many came early in the afternoon for reunions with classmates.

Once again the auditorium on Freshman Field was the center of activities. Classes observing anniversaries were 1918, 1923, 1928, 1933, 1938 and 1943.

At the annual dinner in the evening John B. Atkinson, '16, presided in the unavoidable absence of retiring president, J. Lester Hourigan, '24. Principal speakers were Gerald F. Coughlin, representing the twenty-five year class, 1923; William M. Cashin, '18, the new Alumni president; Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S.J., president of the College.

The Alumni Medal was presented to Charles A. Birmingham, '10.

Charles W. O'Brien, '33, chairman of the Nominating Committee, announced the election results.

Guests of the Association were members of the Classes 1893 and 1898.

Joseph P. Rooney, '24, was chairman of the day.

NO DINNER DANCE

Reluctantly the Board of Directors announced that the annual dinner dance on the eve of the game with Holy Cross will not be held this year. Increased cost of food, etc., has made the admission charge prohibitive.

ALUMNI MEDAL WINNER

Charles A. Birmingham, '10, was the recipient of the Alumni Medal (William V. McKenney Medal) on Alumni Day in June.

He was awarded the medal because of his devotion to Boston College through the years. In the late twenties he served as president of the Alumni Association. In the 1921 fund drive he held a prominent position on the executive committee. Last year he was the general chairman of the public drive for the new building for the Business School. In 1934 Mr. Birmingham received an LL.D. from the College.

After living in New York for several years he returned last year to Boston. His law office is at 60 State Street, Boston.

REV. ERNEST B. FOLEY, S.J., DEAN

Father Foley, the new dean of the College, was appointed in June to his new position by Very Rev. John J. McEleney, S.J., provincial of the Society of Jesus in New England. He is a native of Peabody. Previously he was Chairman of the Department of Economics at the College.

COMMENCEMENT

Approximately 519 degrees were conferred by Very Rev. William L. Keleher, S.J., College president on successful candidates at the seventy-second Commencement exercises on June 9. About 287 of these degrees were received by students at the College, indicating a gradual return to pre-war numbers.

Archbishop Cushing presided at the exercises while Most Rev. Matthew F. Brady, Bishop of Manchester, N. H., addressed the graduates.

In addition to Bishop Brady, the following received honorary degrees: Rt. Rev. Jeremiah F. Minahan, pastor, St. Catherine's Church, Norwood; Dr. Edward A. Strecker, University of Pennsylvania Medical School; Dr. Charles C. Tansill, Professor of Diplomatic History, Georgetown University; Doctors Frederick W. O'Brien, '20, and Frederick L. Good, Boston physicians; Francis M. Crowley, Dean, School of Education, Fordham University.

Another scholastic year began this month at the Heights with the greatest enrollment in the history of the College—5,000 students. Rev. Ernest B. Foley, S.J., is the new dean succeeding Rev. Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J. Father Mulcahy, who was dean from 1942 to 1948, is now at the Jesuit Novitiate at Shadowbrook. The new building directly behind the Tower Building for the Business School was completed in time for the beginning of classes.

Despite the new Business School and the temporary buildings the campus is overcrowded. Parking space is at a premium and hundreds of autos fill the nearby streets.

Rev. Francis X. Wilkie, S.J., and Rev. David R. Dunigan, S.J., have left the Heights. Both are now teaching at Fairfield University in Connecticut.

Additions to the faculty include: Rev. Leo McCauley, S.J., Classics; Rev. Michael Walsh, S.J., and Bernard Sullivan, Biology; Rev. Robert McEwen, S.J., Christopher Flynn, William Dymsha, Austin P. Sullivan, Tihamer Fabinyi, Economics; Revs. James Loeffler, S.J., and James Risk, S.J., Religion; Charles Ziniti, William Sipsey, Leo Fittabile, Joseph McCafferty, Donald Murphy, Francis Buckley, English; Rev. Joseph Gauthier, S.J., Romance Languages; Rev. Charles Donovan, S.J., and John J. Donovan, Education; Revs. Francis MacDonald, S.J., Daniel O'Connor, S.J., Frederick Adelman, S.J., John Ford, S.J., Edward Keating, S.J., James McLaughlin, S.J., Messrs. James Walsh and William Haggerty, Philosophy; John Mulligan, German; Miles S. Sherrill, Wilfred Grapes, Chemistry; John Power, Physics; Paul Banks and Hans Haefli, Math; William McGill, Psychology; Robert Williams, Sociology; Joseph King, History; Director of Choral Group, Leo Brehm; R.O.T.C., Captains Robert Rooker and Raymond Pearson, U.S.A.

New faculty members at the Business School are: Revs. Henry Wennerberg, S.J., Bernard Boylan, S.J., John Collins, S.J., Robert McEwen, S.J., Leo A. Reilly, S.J., Messrs. Joseph D'Avella, James R. McPherson, Paul O'Donnell, James Shaw, Maurice K. Walsh and Joseph D. O'Brien.

DAVID J. LUCEY, 1940
Director of Public Relations

The establishment of a new administrative department of Public Relations at the College and the appointment of David J. Lucey, '40, as Director was announced on July 9 by Very Reverend William L. Keleher, S.J., President of the College. Mr. Lucey graduated from Dover, New Hampshire High School prior to his entrance to Boston College in 1936. While an undergraduate, he was an active member of the Marquette Debating Society, Associate Business Editor of the Sub Turri, a member of the varsity football squad for three years, and Chairman of Commencement Week.

Following his graduation, he spent three and one half years with the Empire Carpet Corporation, the New England subsidiary of the Armstrong Cork Company, and then became a teacher and head football coach at Saugus High School where his team won the State Championship in 1944. In 1947 he was appointed Assistant Coach at the College, from which position he resigned to accept his new office.

Congratulations are extended to Very Rev. John A. O'Brien, S.J., who was appointed president of Holy Cross College last month. Father O'Brien was a member of the B. C. faculty from 1933 to this year. From 1933-35 he was assistant professor of Classical Languages. From 1935-48 he was professor of Ethics and Religion.

RED MASS

For the eighth year the Solemn Votive Mass of the Holy Spirit, traditionally known as the Red Mass, will be celebrated at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Boston, on Saturday, October 2 at ten o'clock.

The Law School first introduced the custom of starting the judicial year with the Red Mass in 1941. Each year a prominent person has delivered the sermon. This year the members of the legal profession will hear the distinguished Very Rev. Robert I. Gannon, S.J., president of Fordham University.

John A. Canavan, '18, will serve as marshal of the procession. John J. Walsh, '15, is chairman of the reception committee.

ADULT EDUCATION

A series of seven lecture-discussions on various subjects of contemporary interest will be conducted by the Boston College Institute of Adult Education at the American Academy of Arts and Sciences at 28 Newbury St. from October 4 through November 15. A course in Basic Metaphysics and one in Practical Public Speaking will also be offered to alumni and their wives.

The Current Events Forum, which has become very popular in recent years, has a tuition fee of five dollars for the seven week series and a charge of one dollar per lecture.

The course in Basic Metaphysics will be conducted by Dr. Fakhri Maluf on the metaphysical principles of Scholastic Philosophy as exemplified by the writings of St. Thomas and a series of lectures on Public Speaking will be conducted by Rev. John W. Ryan, S.J.

The Current Events Forum offers the following courses:

- Oct. 4 CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTIES OF EUROPE
Most Rev. John J. Wright, D.D. Auxiliary Bishop of Boston
- Oct. 11 AMERICAN POLITICAL PARTIES AND ELECTIONS
Rev. Thomas F. Fleming, S.J., Professor of Government at Boston College
- Oct. 18 MR. JOSEPH STALIN
Very Rev. John A. O'Brien, S.J., President, Holy Cross College
- Oct. 25 A CATHOLIC HOUSING PLAN
Rev. Harold J. Sullivan, S.J., Director, The Homestead Movement, Jamaica, British W. I.
- Nov. 1 IMPLICATIONS OF THE REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT'S COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION
Rev. Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., former Dean of Boston College, 1942-1948.
- Nov. 8 EDUCATION FOR LABOR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

B. C. ALUMNI EDUCATORS HONORED

D. Leo Daley, '16, Gerald F. Coughlin, '23, Made Assistant Superintendents.
George L. McKim, '22, New Headmaster of Boston Public Latin School

Important appointments in the Boston School System this month have honored many Boston College graduates in the teaching profession.

D. Leo Daley, '16, and Gerald F. Coughlin, '23, became assistant superintendents. Daley had been headmaster of Technical High School. Several years ago he was head football coach at the College. Coughlin, former president of the Alumni Association, had been headmaster of Roslindale High School.

Boston has six assistant superintendents, one of whom is a woman. The five men are B. C. graduates. In addition to the new appointees there are Michael J. Downey, '04, Frederick J. Gillis, '16, and William J. Barry, '23.

William F. Looney, former headmaster of the High School of Commerce, was appointed president of Teachers College. He received an M.A. in 1920.

The distinction of becoming the headmaster of the oldest high school in the country, Boston Public Latin School, went to George L. McKim, '22.

Two other graduates also became headmasters: Thomas F. Gately, '20, Roslindale High School; Walter T. Durnan, '17, Technical High School.

John W. Gorman, '19, became principal of the Warren District.

Dr. John E. Collins, '25, and Herbert G. Regan, A.M. '39, received appointments as assistant professors at Teachers College.

Appointed as heads of departments were: Wilfred L. O'Leary, '29, Jeremiah E. Burke High School; William E. O'Connor, '19, Roslindale High School; Francis X. Sullivan, '27, Roxbury Memorial High School for Girls; Matthew F. Mealy, '17, Jamaica Plain High School.

Arthur L. Gould, '13, retired in June as superintendent of schools. Joseph L. Powers, '99, retired as headmaster of Public Latin School.

HUGH A. DRUM

The following editorial about Lieutenant General Hugh A. Drum, LL.D., 1923, appeared in the New York Times (September 14, 1948). General Drum is the brother of John D. Drum, '90, the late Joseph C. Drum, '94, and the late Rev. Walter F. Drum, S.J., '90 (many Alumni will recall the sermon delivered by Father Drum on the occasion of the dedication of the Tower Building in 1913).

GENERAL DRUM'S SERVICE

Lieut. Gen. Hugh A. Drum's retirement as commanding general of the New York National Guard as he reaches the age of 69 invites a review of the exceptional services that this distinguished citizen has performed for his country. The son of a soldier, he was born in an Army post, and was already a second lieutenant on duty in the Philippines hostilities of 1898 before he was 20 years old. He served on the Mexican border, on General Pershing's original general headquarters staff of the A.E.F. in 1917, and thenceforward assumed steadily increasing responsibilities that revealed the measure of the man.

His achievements in the laborious preparations that went into organization and training of our young men for the Second World War are still fresh in the memory of New Yorkers. In command of the First Army until he resigned from the Regular Army, in 1943, he brought to his final wartime task the background of broad experience in the field and in varied peacetime assignments. He has always set for himself an exacting standard of competence. He was, throughout his career, a credit to the uniform of the United States Army and an able, inspiring officer. He has been, besides, a man who always took his place in the community, led public opinion in the right direction and performed with grace his obligations as a good neighbor. We honor him as soldier and friend.

BOSTON MONSIGNORI

Several Boston priests were made domestic prelates this month by Pope Pius XII.

Alumni honored include Rt. Rev. Augustine C. Dalton, 1916, pastor, St. Kevin's Church, Dorchester, who a year ago had been named a papal chamberlain; Rt. Rev. Francis Cronin, 1896, pastor, St. Joseph's Church, East Boston; Rt. Rev. Edward Kenney, 1897, pastor, St. Mary's Church, Franklin; Rt. Rev. Charles N. Cunningham, 1903, pastor, St. Paul's Church, Roxbury; Rt. Rev. Francis X. Sallaway, 1913, pastor, Sacred Heart Church, West Lynn.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

By the time that this article appears, no oracle will be required to foretell the fate of the 1948 Eagles, for on Sept. 24, Wake Forest, coached by that old fox Peahead Walker, will have met the Boston eleven for the fifth time. That game will tell the story. However, much may be expected from Denny Myers' men, since the club of '48 has been well selected and seasoned by the able staff of Myers, "Lefty" Flynn, Herb Kopf, "Moody" Sarno, and "Red" Mangene. Of these, Flynn, captain under Gil Dobie, and Herb Kopf are new, but they have fast become important cogs in a football machine that is rolling smoothly. Mangene has been entrusted with a great responsibility—that of training the freshman club, one that seems destined to become one of the outstanding frosh elevens in B.C. history.

The schedule has been reviewed in the June issue of the Alumni News; hence it will be but briefly mentioned here—Wake Forest, Georgetown, St. Bonaventure, Villanova, Mississippi, Clemson, William and Mary, St. Mary's, and Holy Cross. Man alive—that is a schedule for giant-killers. St. Bonaventure, loaded for bear, travels all over the country, meeting B.C. on the East coast and San Francisco on the West. William and Mary (Southern Conference champions in 1947) and Mississippi are both powerhouses that deepen the Southern tinge that has dominated the Boston card for a decade.

Prospects are bright for the best season that B.C. has enjoyed since it won the Lambert Trophy in 1942. Ends are strong—at present All-American Art Spinney and Fitchburg Stan Goode are leading the pack, but Albie Gould, John Harbison, Jabar, Mulloy, Ring, Weisniewski, and Roy Norden follow close behind. Six lettermen dominate the tackle squad—Capt. Furey, Giordano, Lipka, McCarthy, Osganian, and Stautner, but DiRobbio from Providence and O'Reilly from Philadelphia figure, too. Stautner has already been selected on three national magazine All-American teams.

Arthur Donovan and Papaleo are fixtures at guard, in a slot where the Eagles are deep, for Flaherty, Gould, Murray, Coen, Provitola, and Tom Brennan are bulwarks. Center is strong with the gigantic Kennedy and Chouinard vying for the starting position, although Roy Delaney is pressing hard.

B.C. has a wealth of backs—indeed Myers intends substituting whole units at a time—a passing backfield of Clasby, Songin, Diminick, and Poissant; a speedy backfield of Cannava, Lanoue, Clasby, and Diminick; a heavy backfield of DeRosa, Farrell, Songin, and Palladino, not necessarily using these men always as definite units but adding men like Stuka, Boverini, Petela, Fred Songin, and the Jabars when opportunity presents itself.

The freshmen have a Braves Field schedule of Holy Cross on the night of Oct. 11, and Marianopolis; Villanova is met at Lawrence, Brown at Providence, and Dartmouth at Hanover. Mangene expects real success with men like Pike of Lynn, Blomberg and Tarasovich of Bridgeport, Jimmy Ryan of Aquinas in Rochester (perhaps faculty members Florence O'Connell and Jim Ryan of '22 helped there), Grant of Derby, Conn., Stathopolous of Malden, Frank Cousineau, Charley Pinette of Biddeford, Bill Schola (coached by Gintoff at Fairfield), Jimmy Parsons of Northampton and a dozen others.

OTHER SPORTS

It is not too late to congratulate Fred Maguire on an excellent baseball season that left the Eagles with one of the outstanding records in New England, nor is it too early to think ahead to splendid hockey and basketball schedules, with 20 games to be played in each sport. The Arena and the Garden are to be the hosts in most games, but several basketball tilts are to be played on the home court at University Heights and the Dartmouth five is to be met at Hanover. With the material that Coach McLellan has coming up from the freshmen, the Maroon and Gold should be a far better club than it was in '47-8, just as that five was an improvement on that of 46-7. The Outing Club, too, is growing fast, and the wonderful job that the Golf team did both here and in California with such stars as Coakley, Ernst, and Kinchla spread the name of B.C. across the nation. The Yachting Club, too, had an excellent season—all in all Boston College sports are on the up-grade once again.

FOOTBALL TICKETS

Football tickets are again on sale at the Alumni Office for the convenience of the Alumni.

Due to the World Series very few tickets will be available for the St. Bonaventure game. The game will be played on Saturday, October 9, at the Heights where the seating capacity is limited. For the same reason the field stands at Braves Field will not be up for the Villanova game on October 15.

✠ Father Ed Hartigan was host this summer to the following members of the Class at Camp Cedar Crest at Green Harbor: Fathers Frank Cummings, Tim Sheehan and Tom Flynn. Also Vin Greene, John McEleney, John Mahoney, Jim Cotter, Fred Dunphy, Mike Flanagan, Larry Kiely, Pat McDonald, Fred and Bill Murphy and George Leonard, who came on from New Jersey. After a very enjoyable lunch there was swimming for the hardy ones and Father Cummings and Pat McDonald played golf. An inspection of the Camp followed.

Prayers for the deceased members of the Class were offered by Father Flynn in the beautiful new chapel on the grounds. A short business meeting followed and plans were made to hold our Fall meeting with a dinner at the Hotel Puritan the night before the William and Mary game. After that, dinner — and what a dinner! In our books Father Ed ranks as No. 1 host.

Advice to the younger members of the Alumni: If you have children between the ages of 8 and 16, you couldn't find a better place to have them spend two weeks or more than at Camp Cedar Crest.

Leo Noonan, a candidate for Congress, was too busy to come on for the outing. He sent his regrets and promises, win, lose or draw, to be on for the dinner in November.

✠ Thirty-five years ago this month the new College was formally opened for the scholastic year. We had the honor of being the Senior Class, our first and last year at the Heights. Congratulations to Very Rev. Edward (Leo) Hughes, O.P., on his election as Provincial of the Dominican Province of St. Albert the Great, with headquarters at Chicago. Father Edward was a Brighton boy.

John Hogan's boy, John, Jr., of

Lawrence, is a Senior at the College.

Father Pat Dawson (Nantasket) is making a steady recovery from a serious illness after being sick since June.

We regret the sudden death of John J. Stackhouse of Dedham, who entered B. C. High with us in 1906. R.I.P.

Father Fred Deasy, pastor of St. Joseph's, Wakefield, made the pilgrimage to Rome with the Archbishop's party.

Monsignor McKenzie reminds us of the semi-annual Class Dinner to be held in October. Notice of the date will be mailed to you.

✠ Some of the 1916 group that I met this summer are: "Jerry" McCarthy, Chief of the Anti-Trust Division, Department of Justice. Jerry was formerly Assistant U. S. Attorney. Father George Casey at the dedication of his new church, St. Joachim's, Rockport. Pat Donovan, one of the group of 600 who accompanied Archbishop Cushing on his pilgrimage to Europe.

Monsignor Dalton, one of the pilgrimage personalities, who revealed that he is a poor sailor, but the places visited and the persons met were reward indeed for discomforts suffered. Monsignor Dalton and Pat Donovan had as companions on the trip Monsignors Donovan and McInnis and Father John Cunningham.

Kindly remember in your daily prayers, Al Brennan, the most loyal member of 1916 and one of the finest gentlemen I have ever known. George Carens of the Traveler hopes to be with us at our next banquet. He still recalls his banquet at the Engineers.

We extend our congratulations to Jim Duffy on his recent marriage. Jim deserves the best of good luck. Seen at Green Harbor were Al Smith and Jack O'Keefe, whose boy is a student at St. John's Seminary.

The Class extends its sympathy to Father Joe Kelly, S.J., on the death of his sister, who was a nun in Manchester, N. H.; Father George Gasey on the death of his brother Harry, a prominent attorney; Father George Smith, S.J., on the death of his mother; Joe Scolponeti on the death of his mother.

Father McNulty is now pastor of St. Andrew's, North Billerica.

Leo Daley has been elected president for 1948-1949 and he plans to have Bishop Daly of Des Moines as our guest at the next banquet.

At the gathering of the Class on June 17th at Marlboro Country Club the attendance was not as good as the meeting held there last year. It did not lack the usual enthusiasm, however. Among those present with their wives were: John Flynn, Marty Higgins, Frank Heanue, Eddie Austin, Jack Doyle, Joe Dee, Les Shea, Bill Reid. From the clergy came Father Frank Egan.

His Excellency, Archbishop Cushing, on the pilgrimage to Rome, had in his group two members of the Class. Father Gus Hargedon of Marblehead was taken sick on board ship and hospitalized in Paris. Dr. Charlie Twomey was accompanied by his wife and son, Charles.

John Flynn suffered the loss of his brother during the month of May. The Class extends its sympathy to the bereaved with the prayer that the soul of the departed may rest in peace.

George Krim suffered the loss of his father in August. The Class extends its sympathy to the family, which includes two sons in the Society of Jesus, with the prayer that the soul of the departed may rest in peace.

Father William McCarthy, after serving as assistant at St. Mary of the Assumption, Brookline, for several years, has been appointed Parish Priest of St. Mary's Parish, Ayer.

Matt Mealy has been promoted to Head of Department at Jamaica Plain High School. Son Dr. Robert F., shortly before graduating from Tufts Medical School, was married to Miss Paula M. McCarthy. Dr. Mealy attended Boston College before graduating from the University of Penn. He served in the Army during the World War. The couple will settle in Hartford, Conn.

Charlie Sharkey has been elected one of the three international vice-presidents of the American Federation of Government Employees (AFL) from the District of Columbia. He is now labor economist for the Department of Labor.

"Bo" Mahoney has opened an employment office in Boston.

Tom Printon, who was taken ill while vacationing on the Cape last year, returned to his cottage again this year for part of the summer.

Having only agreed on Alumni Day to assume the duties of Class Correspondent, I have been unable to receive any material from the members of the Class.

We were pleased to renew old acquaintances on Alumni Day with the following classmates: Tom Reynolds, Bill Herlihy, Father Otis Kelly, Jack Creed, J. Paul Lynch, Clarence W. Greene, Frank P. Frazier, Charlie Fitzgerald, Fathers Remi B. Schuver and Tom Brennan, S.J., Frank Facey, Jim Donovan and Bill Cashin.

The Class congratulates Father Schuver on his appointment as pastor of St. Michael's, Avon, and Father Frank Kelleher, who has been named administrator of St. Bernadette's, Randolph.

We are also proud of Bill Cashin's election to the presidency of the Alumni Association, N.B. Bill won an R.C.A. television set at the Braves' "Appreciation Day." Congratulations!

Very Rev. Edward Stanford, O.S.A., is executive director of the Catholic Commission on Intellectual and Cultural Affairs. In this capacity he expected to attend the General Assembly of the International Catholic Movement for Intellectual and Cultural Affairs held in Ware, England.

Myles Connolly's oldest son, Myles, entered the Freshman Class at the Heights this month.

FRANCIS D. SHEA
56 Richwood St., West Roxbury 32

Frank Horrigan is with General Foods Corporation in New York. He is manager of production planning in the Birds Eye-Snyder Division. His home is in New Rochelle, N. Y.

Very Rev. Vincent Hughes, O.P., pastor of St. Dominic's Church, Denver, Colo., recently observed the 25th anniversary of his ordination. Ad Multos Annos!

Also felicitations for the same reason to Rev. Herbert Driscoll, pastor of St. John's parish in Townsend.

Making the news, too, is Gene Bernardin and his wife, who are celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They have three children, Eugene, Jr., Josephine and George. Gene is general manager of the Joseph J. Flynn, Inc., outdoor advertising firm.

Harry Fitzpatrick, principal of Holyoke High School, was a member of the pilgrimage party accompanying Archbishop Cushing to Rome.

Although our Silver Jubilee celebration was dogged from beginning to end with deluges, we managed to have several good times.

The festivities opened on Saturday afternoon, June 5, at the Cliff Hotel, North Scituate, where, after a visit to the Bamboo Room, a reasonable facsimile of our original minstrel show was presented by as many members of the original cast as were available.

The party of about 50 then sat down to an excellent dinner, which was followed by a short program of speeches and songs. The party then broke up into small groups and continued the festivities in various sectors.

Monday, June 7, Alumni Day, was featured by a continuous downpour. However, about 25 members were able to assemble at the Commonwealth Country Club to enjoy a luncheon and reminisce about the days on the Heights and our several reunions. President Gerry Coughlin acted as chairman.

It was a wild scurry from the Country Club to the Heights to join with the rest of the Alumni at the Alumni Dinner. A packed auditorium enjoyed a hearty meal, featured by community singing, snake dances, and speeches by the representatives of the various anniversary classes. We were all very well pleased with the address of our president, Gerry Coughlin, who rededicated the efforts of the Class to all the interests of Boston College.

Space does not permit our giving the names of class members who attended the different gatherings, but in the following list are those who appeared at least once—and some who attended all: Dr. Bill Barry, Matt Butler, Dr. Ed Burke, Al Bedard, Fr. Patrick Collins, S.J., Joe Comber, Tony Comerford, Jim Daly, Joe Delaney, Bill Duffy, Ed Dullea, Tom Eccles, Ed Fogarty, Joe Galvin, George Gormley, Jack Heaphy, Frank Hickey, Jack Lyons, Art Kane, Joe Lee, Fr. Leo McCabe, Dr. Lawrence McCarthy, Cecil McGoldrick, Dr. Phil McGovern, Fr. Norbert McInnis, Walter Mayo, Fr. Clarence Macksey, Dr. Len Morrissey, Larry Murphy, Bill Nolan, Con O'Connell, John O'Donnell, George Olesen, Frank Reynolds, John Roche, Dick Rockett, Joe Crane, Joe Sweeney, Nick Tangney, Gaynor Wellings, Owen Gallagher, Ed Garrity, Gerry Coughlin, and Frank Ford.

Father Ed Walsh, recently returned from military service, has been appointed to St. Mary's, Brookline.

As of September 1, 47 members of the Class have responded with their donations for the 25th reunion in June, 1949. Good, but it could and should be better.

An item of interest received too late for publication in the June issue is the arrival of Kathleen, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kelleher. This makes four for Bill, three girls and a boy.

J. P. Sullivan has been elected State Historian of the American Legion. Maybe "J. P." could be talked into being historian for the Class and give a report at our 25th Anniversary.

Frank Emmet is active in the "District of Columbia Golf Association Junior Golf Sponsoring Group." Frank and his pet project have received considerable publicity in the Washington Evening Star, and his group took part in the Hearst Tournament at the Charles River Golf Club on August 17, 18 and 19. If any members of the Class have any "teen-age" golfers around the house, correspond with Frank and he will tell you more about the project.

Father James McKeon has a new address at St. Joseph's, Somerville.

Father William Lucey, S.J., of Holy Cross and Frank Kilcoyne had a happy reunion at a summer convocation held at St. Michael's College, Winoski, Vt.

Ed Kelley is back in this area after an absence of five years. During that time he served a year in the Army and worked as a Claims Adjuster for the Government Auditing Department in Washington, D. C. His home address now is 14 Churchill Avenue, Arlington.

Jack Barry is with Charles L. Richardson & Co., Inc., 171 Summer St., Boston.

It was a shock to learn that Maj. George Robertie and his wife died this summer in an automobile accident in Germany where he was serving with the War Crimes Commission. His wife was the sister of Father Joe Browne, and to him the Class extends most sincere sympathy. R.I.P.

Bob Daley is a member of the law firm of Parker, Coulter, Daley and White, Boston.

On vacation at Dennisport I met Judge "Connie" Moynihan. John McMahon owns a place there. The Judge told me he met Bill Considine in July on the Cape.

Got a kick out of reading about Dr. Art Gorman delivering one of his specialties right on Commonwealth Avenue in an automobile in front of his office. Art spent the summer at Green Harbor.

Dr. John Poutas has been named assistant medical director of the Veterans' Administration, No. 1 Area. He has been chief of professional services at the West Roxbury Veterans' Hospital for the past two years. Dr. Poutas is married, has three children and makes his home in Waltham.

Father David Twomey, S.J., is Moderator of the Debating Society at Holy Cross.

Gerald O'Connor has been elected president of the Raymond Concrete Pile Co., Rialto Building, Caracas, Venezuela.

Father John Burris is now stationed at the Holy Name parish, West Roxbury.

Bill Fitzgerald, Librarian at St. Louis University School of Medicine, has been appointed director of the George Peabody School of Library Science at Nashville, Tenn. He will be greatly missed in Missouri, where he has been President of the Gallery of Living Authors at Webster Grove, Mo. Please pray for Bill's wife, who has been a hospital patient for many months since the birth of their fourth child. Father Bob Hilton was a member of the Archbishop Cushing Pilgrimage party. He returned home on September 5 after a memorable trip.

Father Jim Normile is back doing chaplain work in the Army and is stationed at Dow Air Base, Bangor, Maine.

Father John Bowen is active in the youth work in his new assignment at Blessed Sacrament Church, Walpole.

Father John Feeney has been appointed an assistant at St. Andrew's, Forest Hills. Previously, John had been administrator of St. Mary's Parish, Randolph.

Seen on the sands at Dennisport late in August were Tom Heffernan, Dr. Bob Welch, and Fred McDermott with their charming wives and lively, handsome youngsters. Tom is connected with the office of Superintendent of Schools in Boston in a research capacity; Bob is still a specialist in Brockton; Fred is a full-time professor at the Law School.

Jack Desmond has been promoted to the position of Head of the English Department at Dorchester High School for Boys.

Thanks to Father Joe Quane, S.J., and Father Joe McCall for sending in items of news.

The activities of our 20th Anniversary held in June were very successful. The week-end at the Cliff House, Scituate, was enjoyed by twenty-five members of our Class. Prominent among them were Dr. Art Shinney, John Barrett, Ed Healey, executive at White's Milk Co., Roy Tribble and Frank Phelan, the publicity and realtor men. Jack Doherty, "Pete" Carey, Cornelius O'Donnell and Conny Monahan came down from Lowell. Pat Tompkins and his company together with the illustrious commentator of WEEL, Cornelius Scanlon, (a plug), dropped in. Also Joe Carty, who has a summer home in the vicinity. He invited us to spend a day there next year.

The luncheon and the Alumni dinner were well attended by over 50 members of the class.

John McDevitt has been highly honored in his election to the post of State Deputy of the K. of C. in Massachusetts.

Doctor Robert Donovan proudly announces the birth of his seventh child.

A recent benedict is Maurice Downey, who was married on August 28 to Miss M. Frances Rattigan of Hyde Park, and "Pete" Carey's name will be added to the list on October 2 in Detroit, Michigan.

Marty Kane is an assistant research director with J. Walter Thompson Co., New York City.

Father John G. Schultz, C.S.S.R., is a Professor of Sacred Eloquence at Catholic University, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Howard Carroll, Superintendent of Schools in Taunton, was the principal speaker at the Commencement exercises of the New Bedford Textile Institute in June.

Tom Gemelli is the new high outside sentinel of the Mass. Catholic Order of Foresters.

JOHN F. DWYER

30 Garrison Rd., Brookline 46

A sociable reunion was enjoyed at the Heights on Alumni Day, June 7. Included in our class group were Father John W. Ryan, S.J., Father Daniel Kelleher, Judge John J. Connelly, John Grandfield, Bill Mulcahy, Dr. Frank Higgins, Dr. Bob Barrett, Dr. John Foley, Atty. John Groden, Joe Kelly, Al McCarthy, Frank McNulty, Bill Beal, Joe Whitehead, Jack Hayes, and Frank Tallino.

July revived sad memories of two of our classmates, casualties of World War II: John M. Dwyer of Cambridge and Edward M. Kearns of Belmont and Northampton. A Solemn High Mass of Requiem for the repose of the soul of P.F.C. John M. Dwyer was sung by Monsignor Finnegan at the Blessed Sacrament Church in Cambridge on July 10th. Father Ed Galvin was present on the altar. Active pallbearers were James J. Reagan, John Groden, Jim Langan, John Grandfield, Ted Hoppe, John Cody, and your correspondent. Dr. Bill O'Connor, Roger O'Sullivan, Dave Hockman, Dave Ronan, and John Barry attended the Mass. The memory of our beloved classmate was honored by Monsignor Finnegan's stirring eulogy. Military honors were conferred at the cemetery in Malden.

On July 22nd a Solemn High Mass of Requiem for the repose of the soul of Staff Sgt. Edward M. Kearns was sung at St. John Cantarus Church in Northampton. Our class was represented by James J. Reagan of Belmont. Enrollment of our deceased classmates in the Jesuit Seminary Guild was acknowledged by their families.

Father John W. Ryan, S.J., has been honored by being appointed Dean of Boston College Adult Town Meeting School at Newbury Street, Boston. Dr. and Mrs. Frank Higgins and their three children, Susan, Mary Jane, and Peter, motored cross-country to California on vacation this summer. Frank planned to return in time to see the Red Sox win the pennant.

Warmly welcomed at Alumni Day was Father Dan Kelleher, who was an Army chaplain during World War II, and is now stationed at St. Paul's in Wellesley.

Ed Hogan, Dean of the University of San Francisco Law School, returned to Natick for a visit this summer. Tom Kelly of Filene's recently won a prize at the golf tournament of the Boston Merchandisers' Association at the South Shore Country Club. Fran Bradley finished high in the M.G.A. tournament in July.

Seen at the Ponkapoag Golf Club in Canton were John Foley, Fran Bradley, and Connie Murphy. Atty. James J. Reagan of Belmont recently returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to Nova Scotia. John Groden is a steady patron at Patten's Restaurant. We will welcome any news notes you may have. Please let us hear from you.

Met John Coleman on a recent trip to Buffalo. John is a field examiner for the National Labor Relations Board there, but hopes to be transferred to Boston soon. Bill Beal is handling promotional publicity for the Greater Boston Development Commission. John Grandfield recently met Joe Howard in Roslindale. Joe is engaged in real estate at Rye, New Hampshire. The Class extends its sympathy to George O'Donnell, whose mother recently passed away. Joe Mooney authored the Centennial Pageant which was the highlight of the on-hundredth anniversary of the city of Oswego, N. Y., celebrated early this month.

John Haverly was married to Miss Margaret E. Wright of Mattapan early in July. The bride's brother, Bishop Wright, officiated at the nuptials.

JOHN P. CONNOR

28 Dickenson Rd., Brighton 35

During the summer another classmate took the long walk down the middle aisle when Frank Curtin was married to Miss Josephine A. Michaelowski in St. Hugh's Church, Dorchester, on July 10.

In the last issue of the News I stated that Dr. Bill Egan and Al Ricci were battling for the honor of leading father in the Class. Since then I have heard from Dr. John Quigley, who seems to be out front at the present time—he is the proud father of seven children, the oldest 14 years and the youngest nine months. He is practising general surgery and obstetrics in Nashua, N. H. He is a member of the local school board and president of the Lions Club for the coming year.

Jim Donovan is the proud father of five daughters. He is working for Telechron, Inc., in Framingham and is living in Holliston.

Al Ricci managed and coached one of the teams in the Hyde Park Twilight League.

Tom Collins is connected with the Boston Edison Company.

Jerry Downey finished among the first ten in the recent examination held by the Boston schools for assistant principal.

Frank Cassidy is manager of the W. T. Grant store in Akron, Ohio.

Father Leo McGann is now stationed at St. Joseph's, Kingston.

C. Glynn Fraser is now a resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, where, at Xavier University, he returns to his old friends, the Jesuits, as Assistant to the President and instructor in sociology. Glynn will teach a course on "The Family" and one on "Communications Arts" plus assisting the President of Xavier in the Development Program. Since leaving the Heights, he took his A.M. at Notre Dame, Ed.M. at New York University, and this summer completed his work for a Ph.D. in Sociology at Columbia. Family is now Betty, Ellen, Marguerite and Terry—short (alas, says Glynn) for Terese!

M. Paul McSweeney was married to Miss Pauline Magwood of Somerville at St. Joseph's Church on Saturday, June 26.

CHARLES W. O'BRIEN

BRENTON S. GORDON

16 Whittier Road, Natick

 Father Tom Navien writes to relate he was in Boston on the occasion of our class dinner in May, but the invitation went to his Utah address. Sincere regrets on both sides. Father Tom is at the Church of St. Thomas Aquinas, 45 East 5th North, Logan, Utah. He anticipates his stay will be lengthened into another year. Tom assures all B. C. men in the vicinity that to them, The Church of the Philosopher will always be "St. Christopher's Inn."

Bill Ryan in July opened his office for the practice of Ophthalmology at 520 Commonwealth Avenue in Boston. For those who missed the class dinner, Bill, having conquered Times Square—professionally, that is—now will further establish his reputation in Kenmore Square.

Frank and Gertrude Mahoney are beginning to try some of those home furnishings which Frank merchandises in Bridgeport. In August, David, their first child, arrived in some seven pounds of sweetness to brighten their home. The scholar of classical Greek is safely in his home port. Rev. Carl Thayer, S.J., has been ordained and said his First Solemn Mass on June 27 at St. James' Church, Salem. He is now the assistant to the Dean of Studies at Weston College.

At the Class dinner, officers were elected for the ensuing year. The suggestion of a Class government by an executive board was rejected. For the next year the class activities will be directed by George Goodwin, president; John McLaughlin, vice-president; Joe Keating, secretary; and Father "Al" Powers, treasurer. George Mahoney will serve as Class Agent in the continuing Alumni drive for funds. The in the Japanese army. At the time retiring officers, Tom Mahoney and the writer are grateful for class support in the past and will try to deliver some of same in the future. With the next issue, Joe Keating will take on this column.

George Goodwin started his year off right by attending the annual convention meeting of his company at Lake Louise last July. Only the "best" were invited, and George was one of two men in this area to make the trip. More power to you, George.

Paul Flaherty, guild optician, has opened a new Boston office at 419 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston.

A former classmate, Father Michael Gaiero, M.M., was the subject of an interesting article appearing in the July issue of "The Field Afar." He is now pastor of the Heron Market mission in Kaying, China, and when questioned about the success of his mission, he gives a standard answer: "Why, I'm from B. C."

Married in June was John F. DiNapoli, formerly of Woburn, and now Librarian in the Logistics Division of the Naval War College, Newport, R. I., who married Miss Dorothea A. Dunigan of Dorchester on June 12. They are living at 11 Morton Avenue, Newport, R. I.

1945-II

CHARLES A. PHILLIPS, JR.

51 Grant Ave., Watertown 72

After the summer lull there's not much to report from the class. I would like to mention that your reporter was rather impetuous in reporting the Class dinner, for as it turned out there was no such event. It seemed that we could only muster 12 men who expressed a desire to attend. Among the 12 were your committee and also the writer, which, you will admit, does not leave many.

The chief news is sad news. On June 22 our Tom Bilodeau passed away at the Rutland State Hospital. You will remember that Tom entered the hospital shortly after graduation. He was buried from St. Catherine's Church in Charlestown on June 26. Rev. Edward H. Finnegan, S.J., celebrated the Solemn Requiem Mass, and present on the altar were Father Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., and Father Edward Sullivan, S.J. Pall bearers were John Driscoll, Charles Rogers, Robert Dallas, John Fahey, Joseph Dowd and the writer. Many of the classmates were at the wake and their presence was indeed appreciated. He has been enrolled by the Class in the Jesuit Seminary Guild. Lt. George Littlewood has returned home from Army duty in Japan.

Larry Essember received his M.D. from Tufts Medical in June. He is presently interning at Gallinger Municipal Hospital, Washington, D. C. His engagement to Miss Gertrude T. Bulger of Peabody has been announced.

Dan Corcoran has entered the Paulist Novitiate at Oak Ridge, N. J.

Ed Acton was married on July 24 to Miss Alma Tedeschi of Hopkinton.

Robert Mealy is now an M.D. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and Tufts Medical School.

The rest of the news is from the correction department. Dick Paris has informed us that he is not sales manager for Richmond Radiator but does cover New England in a sales capacity. The only reason he deemed such a correction necessary was because the sales manager is a Heights man and happened to read this informative little column.

Correction No. 2: To Jack Fahey's in-laws: Sorry you read between my lines. When I wrote same they were blank. Hereafter, I, also, shall read between my lines. Who knows, my English might be better there! Once again, I'm sorry; there were no implications intended.

COPY BOY TO MANAGING EDITOR

THE honor roll of American journalism is studded with the names of former copy boys. Many a managing editor once jumped when throaty calls of "copy" pierced the editorial office din.

Promotion from the ranks may be an old story in this country, but it remains one of the great virtues of America's industrial philosophy.

Practically every director and officer of A & P came up through the ranks of the company. Most of them began their careers as store clerks, as office boys or as warehouse workers. The president of A & P started work at the age of fifteen as a stock-room boy, filling inkwells in the company warehouse.

That copy boys can become managing editors and stock-room boys presidents of great retail organizations is, of course, evidence that there is always room at the top. But more than this, it means that these men knew, from personal experience, the details of the various jobs that, geared to each other, determine the success or failure of a newspaper or a chain store.

The intimate working knowledge of the retail food business learned from the bottom up by A & P executives helps make it possible for this company to do the nation's most efficient job of food distribution.
